

u3a Carrick Information and application pack

Registered Charity No.1034910 and member of the Third Age Trust

Thank you for enquiring about the u3a. I hope you will find the enclosed information useful and that it encourages you to Join.

What is the u3a? The University of the Third Age is an association for people who are retired or no longer in full-time employment. The objectives are to provide facilities for educational, leisure and recreational activities.

u3a Carrick is a self-help association with members organising themselves into groups, led or co-ordinated by one of them. There are more than a hundred meetings and activities on offer every month, in over 60 groups, so you will almost certainly find something of interest. Most of our events are held during daylight hours on weekdays, but a few groups meet in the evenings or at weekends. Meetings are held in hired rooms, schools and member's homes, with some activities taking place out of doors. Subscriptions generally cover the cost of room hire.

Monthly general meetings are only held at present in Kea Community Centre. You are very welcome to attend, meetings usually consist of speaker, notices, time to socialise and enjoy refreshments. Details are available on the website and in the newsletter.

Welcome Prospective members may attend up to two meetings to allow them to decide whether to join. We hope that you will find us a friendly organisation; If you have any general questions, please do not hesitate to contact myself or one of the Committee, who will be delighted to talk to you at a monthly meeting. If your enquiry is about a specific group, please contact the leader or coordinator.

Newsletter If you contacted us by email, I will email you a copy of the current Newsletter otherwise a paper Newsletter in enclosed for your information. These are compiled and distributed monthly for the information of members.

Background The u3a movement was founded originally in France in 1972 and was brought to this country in 1982. u3a Carrick is just one of more than 1,000 u3a's in the UK belonging to the Third Age Trust, providing access to many facilities including organised conferences and courses. There are many u3a's and similar organisations all over the world. You can find more at www.u3a.org.uk In Cornwall there are 16 u3a's. All are completely autonomous, run by a committee and officers elected at an AGM, any member may stand for election. At present u3a Carrick has over 650 members.

Website The u3a Carrick website address is www.u3acarrick.org.uk It has all the information about us including a calendar of events and a copy of our constitution.

We hope you will want to join us and look forward to meeting you shortly. On receipt of the application form and your subscription, I will advise you by email, your Membership Card will normally be emailed to you within a few days. You are welcome to attend events as soon as you have sent off your application and payment.

Gift Aid Declaration.

University of the Third Age in Carrick (registered charity number 1034910)

I am a UK taxpayer and understand that if I pay less Income Tax and/or Capital Gains Tax than the amount of Gift Aid claimed on all my donations in that tax year it is my responsibility to pay any difference. This means you may choose to donate up to 4 times the amount of tax you pay in a given tax year.

Gift Aid allows u3a Carrick to reclaim 25p of tax on every pound that you subscribe.
